

May 1, 2021

In response to popular demand, we will be hosting the 47th annual College Chemistry Canada (C3) conference this year! It will be a virtual conference, with 5- and 10-minute oral presentations as well as opportunity for discussion and community engagement. We missed this opportunity to get together last year, and we look forward to catching up. Please forward to other interested parties.

Dates: Thursday, May 27 and Friday, May 28

Times: 9:00 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. PDT (1:00 p.m. - 4:15 p.m. ADT)

Delivery mode: Synchronous online, via Zoom

Registration fee: free! Please RSVP to Jimmy_Lowe@bcit.ca to be emailed with the meeting link.

The theme of our conference this year is COVID Chemistry education worth Continuing. We are looking for (i) Furious Five minute or (ii) 10-minute presentations (either synchronously or as a pre-recorded video) on the main challenges and successes you experienced adapting your pedagogy to the online environment, and how you intend to continue this adaption post-pandemic.

Program of sessions and conference updates will be on the C3 website.

<http://collegechemistry.ca/index.html>

If you are interested in speaking at this year's online C3 conference, please send the following information to the program committee: Jimmy_Lowe@bcit.ca and katherine.darvesh@msvu.ca by May 10, 2021.

Submission Details.

Name / Affiliation:

Available Dates for your Presentation: Thurs / Fri / No preference.

Title of Presentation:

Abstract (brief):

Format: Furious Five min or 10 min. Synchronous or video

Permission for Recording: Yes / No

Reminders:

-Please note that the deadline for the Spring Newsletter has been postponed to June 8, 2021 so that some of the conference ideas can be captured and highlighted.

- General Student Award Nominations (<http://collegechemistry.ca/awards.html>) New deadline: May 10, 2021

Stay well, stay safe, stay in touch!

47th annual College Chemistry Canada Planning Committee – Carl, Chuck, François, Jimmy, Kathy, Yann